MARTIN FORSTMYER.

For County:

FRANK W. HAINES.

THE COUNTY CONVENTION AND ITS WORK.

We have attended a good many conventions in Macomb county, but none of them compared in point of numbers with that held by the Republicans last Saturday. At this busy season of the year, with only the stimulus of a pair of candidates to nominate, the representatives of the party as ascribed in full force from every township in the county except Milam—the most remote and inaccessible one of the seventeen. The delegates composing the convention were among the most solid and substantial men in the county and the meeting marked of the plenipotentiary guardian of all the nobility of this community, that the home element we triumphed, will not serve to wipe out the fact that the men who made up the body came from among the most respectable class of tax payers in the county. The Democrats and their is island had been for weeks plotting to their souls the flattening motion of an anticipated rupture in the convention but the sequel proved their worthlessness as prophets for there was not even a harmonious convention. It met, conducted its business in an orderly and decorous manner, and adjourned with a hearty and unanimous purpose of electing its ticket. The candidates nominated by the convention are worthy the support of every Republican in the county. Martin Forstmyer, the candidate for sheriff, is probably as well known as any man in the county. Nearly a quarter of a century ago he came to Beaverton, a poor, friendless youth, with nothing to recommend him but his willingness to work and his generous German heart. Early and late, in sun, shade and storm, in prosperity and adversity, he toiled on, glad to find a home and welcome in a land of civil and religious liberty. It was not long until his neighbors began to discover that beneath his rough exterior he had qualities which might be made useful in wider fields than that of daily labor, and he was solicited to become a candidate for a seat in the city council. He was successful in the race, and all who are familiar with the facts know how well he acquitted himself during his years of service in that body. Afterwards he was elected mayor of the city, and for several years was a member of the board of supervisors. In all these positions he performed an amount of labor for the public far in excess of the money pay allowed him, and it is not too much to say that in the matter of self and willingness to perform public duties of an onerous and disagreeable nature he has never had a superior. In 1870 he received the Republican nomination for sheriff, and was triumphantly elected. His conduct in that office has won for him the most unstinted praise from those most familiar with the duties of the position, and the general verdict of the bench and bar is that Macomb county never had a better sheriff. He has been fearless in the discharge of his official duties, and the only enemies he has made are among those who have suffered by reason of his refusal to regard them with special favor, in violation of his sworn duty. It is my recommendation to a candidate to say that he has been a faithful and efficient officer, then has Mr. Forstmyer the very best sort of endorsement.

Frank W. Haines, who came so near receiving all the votes in the convention for the office of county, is a young man who has never sought office before. He has lived in our midst since his early boyhood, and has shown his ability to triumph over the most adverse circumstances. Left an orphan at an early age, he has had to fight the battles of life unaided, and few young men who started on an equal footing with him have been able to make as good a showing. The secret of his success has been his untiring industry, and his determination to do well whatever he undertakes. We have had a long acquaintance with him, and have always found him exceptionally reliable and trust worthy. He will make a good officer.

Republicans of Macomb county, your ticket is before you, and it is worthy of your unanimous support. It will be triumphantly elected if you but do your duty.

The prohibition organ, in speaking of the Republican convention says that "the hummer element triumphed." After such a statement as the above it will be in order for this cowardly sheet to name the hummers that were in the convention last Saturday.

The Star, with its accustomed proneness to lie about everything it touches, says that the delegates from the country were opposed to Martin Forstmyer, notwithstanding his vote published in its own columns shows that out of the 37 votes from the country, Mr. Forstmyer received twenty-one. So it would seem, from the statement of the Star, that there were twenty-one hummer delegates from the country.

The Republican convention was made up of as good men as Macomb county can furnish, and when the prohibition sheet makes the statement that the hummer element was triumphant, it utters a bold falsehood. Not a single vote was cast in the convention for Martin Forstmyer that did not represent the delegate's personal preference. No instructions had been given, and we do the Star no more than to mention the name of a single hummer who sat in the Republican convention last Saturday.

The "organ" says that the district "whose precincts may be found a big brewery, a beer bottling establishment, saloons and beer shop Martin got the entire vote." How is it that in the second district, that is not a saloon within its borders, Forstmyer got the entire vote? We can conceive of no special reason for Martin's popularity in the second district, unless it is that Kimball is a resident of that district. That it will be contrasted the hummers in the same neighborhood, the Star is not far from the truth, the good of the Republican party demanded a change. The President demanded the subject as of national concern.

The witness incidentally said he had one or two interviews of great length with the President, during which the witness argued that the withdrawal of the troops from New Orleans and not maintaining the Packard Government would be the destruction of the Republican party in the South. The President took the position that the Republican party could no longer maintain that policy which had lost New York to the Republicans, and the party had become weaker in consequence. There fore, the good of the Republican party demanded a change. The President demanded the subject as of national concern.

The witness said so far as he knew no returns had been thrown out by the Returning Board on inadequate and insufficient proof. There was a movement to make Nichols Governor even to the extent of violence.

Gen. Butler interposed, saying:

And in this Nichols had the aid of the President and the McGeachy Commission?

The witness remarked: "I wish, gentlemen, you would distribute these questions among the others."

Gen. Butler: We have been asking many of them because it is certain that we have an honest witness.

The witness: There are many of them, if you would only look after them I find the people of Louisville honest as those anywhere.

Mr. Hiscock: As in Massachusetts?

Gen. Butler: As in New York?

Gen. Butler examined the witness with regard to proofs and affidavits laid before the Returning Board with reference to Eliza Pinkerton being brought into the room of the Returning Board on a sofa. Morey said such conveyance was a matter of necessity, owing to her womb. This was not designed to produce a strong impression on the Board, although it naturally had that effect.

Gen. Sypher:

Recalled by Mr. Hiscock and interrogated concerning the Sherman letter. Mr. Hiscock repeated the question asked Wednesday, namely, whether there was anything which enabled him, up to the time he saw what purported to be the letter written and signed by Mr. Sherman, to carry the form of the latter's handwriting in his mind, and also read the answer then given by Gen. Sypher, namely, No, sir, I have not the form of his writing in my mind now, and I have not seen it frequently since, I would not swear to his signature now.

Gen. Sypher said this was his answer to day.

CAPT. L. G. DENNIS, of Flotida, was permitted to make an explanation concerning Gov. Noyes' testimony before the Potter Committee, in Washington. Gov. Noyes had testified that when the life of Dennis had been threatened, he had called together, in a church or somewhere, all the colored people in the vicinity and had them kneel down and raise their hands, and swear if he were killed they would lay waste in every direction, and avenge his death. Capt. Dennis desired to say that nothing of the kind had taken place, and that Gov. Noyes must have been misinformed.

In reply to a question by the Chairman, Dennis said when he spoke at Newbernville, where it was alleged his life had been threatened, there was no intimidation or any threats.

EX SENATOR TRI MELL, testified that he left for New Orleans on invitation of Mr. Hewitt, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, to witness the eman by the Returning Board, in company with other gentlemen similarly invited, the visitors were not present when the Board returned for deliberation, that they did not see a compilation of returns by which the Board arrived at results, nor did he know whether any affidavits presented to the Board were read at all.

The Committee closed its business here early this afternoon. Messrs. Potter, Hiscock and Butler left for New York, where they will examine, on Monday, Gov. Palmer, of Illinois. An adjournment will then take place, subject to the call of the Chairman. Mr. Springer returns to his family at Deer Park, Md.

DEMOCRATIC county convention, for nominating sheriff and corner next Thursday. Six candidates for sheriff ought to afford a chance for a judicious election. John Henry Myers is looking up, indeed they all look to quite an exit.

People who have occasion to drive out in the country remark upon the large number of rabbits and quail along the way. Every few rods young rabbits are seen hopping along by the hedge and road, and seen skulking about in the grass by the roadside, which almost no game traps. With so large a supply of game, indeed they all look to quite an exit.

Two recent rains have got the roads in the country in rather bad fix. Hills are fully washed and mud holes are plenty in several places, and in some directions from town it is impossible to drive faster than a walk. So if anybody has got to take a trip into the country they will do well to start on time, or they will fail to get to the connections.

On the road between Decatur and the Long Creek church there are many fields of tobacco looking very low and late planting, but while this is true, there are also many fields on high and dry ground which look exceedingly well. Wheat in that region, as elsewhere, is excellent, and on some farms the wheat has been done.

John May is the citizen generally, and successful candidate particularly to get up a ball for the benefit of the widow of the deceased, for the late fall, on their voyage up the Mississippi. He indignantly offers to have the ball put off until after the Democratic county convention, although that would be a severe blow to the list of benefactors. It would be sure to do so. Forstner has a card to buy several tickets.

PERSONAL.

Sergeant O. G. returned from a visit to Chicago last night.

Mr. David B. McFarland, who has been sitting type in Chicago for some time past, returned to Decatur last night.

Mr. J. G. Stone was a caller at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forstner as was also Dr. J. N. Bills.

Mr. Jose Lefebvre made the Berryman office a pleasure for me on Saturday morning.

Miss Clara Stouffer, fiancee of Mr. John Johnson, arrived from Chicago on Saturday afternoon and will remain in the city some days as the guest of Miss May Strawn.

Rev. W. G. Imman closed his labors as pastor of the Baptist church in this city yesterday and having accepted an invitation to fill the pulpit of a church at Fox Lake, summer resort in Wisconsin, he will leave for that place about the middle of this week.

Peter A. Schmidt of Chicago, soon to be visiting his friends.

Col. Phonon Howard, the creditor and keeper of Mullen Jones, came to town, but what his errand is none can tell.

Judging, however, from the fact that the Colonel failed in his effort to secure the endorsement of the greenbackers for his protege, and from the additional fact that he belongs to the noble army of the Reformed, we should suppose that Phonon is here to make some sort of a trade with the Protectionists.

Rev. F. N. Ewing has shown us in his trumpet and tom-tom combined which he procured during his trip to the west. It is a novelty in its kind.

A DANGEROUS JAFFE. — Mrs. W. E. Horne who lives on West Main street, fell on Saturday, from the top to the bottom of her chamber stairs, hitting her head over one eye several times on the staircase she fell. Her fall resulted in the infliction of several severe bruises on the head, but fortunately no bones were broken and it is thought that her injuries are not serious.

Clifford's Febrifuge. In the cure of Fever and Ague this remedy displays extraordinary powers. Properly used, no one can resist it, and other diseases of an intermittent character, including that most distressing disease, periodical Acanthia, have been found to yield, with equal certainty, to its influence. It eradicates all malady from the system, gives tone and vigor to the whole body, and prevents disease from becoming seated.

Try Chapman's Febrifuge, it is sure, safe and speedy in its action. You will never regret buying the first bottle, and you will have discovered a friend you cannot afford to lose.

J. C. RICHARDSON, Prop't. For sale by all druggists. St. Louis July 15 d^oW.

New Song. — We are indebted to the publishers, Messrs. Balmer & Weber, St. Louis, for a copy of a new song entitled "Sweetheart," the music of which was written by our townsmen, Prof. J. W. Herold. The words are quaint and sweet, and the music well adapted to them. It will doubtless prove to be a very popular ballad.

Attention Greenbacks! — You will meet at your armory to-morrow morning at 4 o'clock, for target practice at some point to be determined at the meeting.

Query? — Why will men smoke common tobacco, when they can buy Marlboro Bros. "Leaf of North Carolina" at the same price? (See page 178 d^oW.)

BARNUM COMING.

The veteran prince of showmen brings his great show to Decatur Aug. 6th. His exhibition seats 10,000 persons, and it is generally filled wherever he goes, for his show is better larger and more magnificent than this year ever. The New York Times says

Barnum's great company gave its first appearance in this city yesterday afternoon. It is certainly, without a doubt, the grandest and most complete off that ever pitched tents in this city, as the vast and enthusiastic concourse of people who witnessed the performance will readily attest. One can but a faint conception of the wonderful performances of the world-renowned Trained Stallions and their inimitable trainer, Mr. Carl Antonay, who has spent much time in training the beautiful animals for the arena. The daring acts of equitation by Messrs. Charles W. Fish, Charles Reed and Wm. Morgan, Mrs. James Cooke, Misses Jennie Watson and Katie Stokes held the audience spell bound. Miss Velleter the lady with the iron jaw, electrified the audience with her daring feats prominent among which was being drawn up by a rope, held in her teeth, to the very top of the great tent. The attention of the spectators was riveted upon her as she swung backward and forward. Among the many other wonderful acts was the double somersault of Mr. John Batchelor over the backs of six elephants. A daring and dangerous act was the riding of William Morgan. The great, clumsy beasts are very funny on horseback and created much laughter. The menagerie is crowded with rare curiosities and is in itself worth the price of admission.

TAX-PAYERS.

EDWARD REEDERWAK, some man, is offering a reward for any number of the city who will give him a reason why the ditch and fence in the north and northwest part of town, is made to run diagonally through private property instead of running at right angles along the streets and alleys where it would benefit the citizens generally. Do the council not know that any owner of any one of these private lots will have a right to run up the fence. Turn the alleys and all tax-payers when I am then mounting and riding, to look at the ditch and see how much more easily it could have been done by running it down the highways, by lifting the residents along the line and not taking the risk of paying damages for taking private property for public use, without any assessment of damages whatever. You will hear me on from.

EDWARD REEDERWAK, some man.

Mr. David B. McFarland, who has been sitting type in Chicago for some time past, returned to Decatur last night.

Mr. J. G. Stone was a caller at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forstner as was also Dr. J. N. Bills.
